E-Safety: Useful links for parents

Share Aware guide- a guide produced to empower parents to keep their children safe online. It includes conversation starters to help parents discuss online safety and advice on what to do if things go wrong online. For printed versions of this resource, please see below on additional resources http://www.nspcc.org.uk/globalassets/documents/advice-and-info/share-aware.pdf

NetAware- This is a comprehensive guide for parents on over 50 of the top social networks, apps and games that young people use. It includes key facts for each site, recommended age ratings, and information about safety features. http://www.net-aware.org.uk/

Talking to your child about staying safe online- advice and tips on how to have effective conversations with your children about an array of online topics, including cyberbullying, online porn, and sharing images and information. http://www.nspcc.org.uk/preventing-abuse/keeping-children-safe/online-safety/talking-your-child-staying-safe-online/

Parental controls- information on how parental controls can be used to help keep children safe online. Discusses the benefits of parental controls and gives practical advice on how to put them in place. http://www.nspcc.org.uk/preventing-abuse/keeping-children-safe/online-safety/parental-controls/

NSPCC
Cruelty to children must stop. FULL STOP.