

Flockton CE (C) First School Publication Scheme
on information available under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

The governing body is responsible for maintenance of this scheme.

1. Introduction: what a publication scheme is and why it has been developed

One of the aims of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (which is referred to as FOIA in the rest of this document) is that public authorities, including all maintained schools, should be clear and proactive about the information they will make public.

To do this we must produce a publication scheme, setting out:

- The classes of information which we publish or intend to publish;
- The manner in which the information will be published; and
- Whether the information is available free of charge or on payment.

The scheme covers information already published and information which is to be published in the future. All information in our publication scheme is available in paper form; some can be downloaded from our website www.flocktonschool.co.uk

Some information which we hold may not be made public, for example personal information.

This publication scheme conforms to the model scheme for schools approved by the Information Commissioner.

2. Aims and Objectives

Ethos Statement and Aims of the school:

Rooted in the community. Branching into the future.
Learning together within a Christian environment.

Recognising its historic foundation, Flockton CE (C) First School will preserve and develop its religious character in accordance with the principles of the Church of England and in partnership with the Church at parish and diocesan level.

Our School aims to serve its community by providing an education of the highest quality within the context of Christian belief and practice. It encourages an understanding of the meaning and significance of faith, and promotes Christian values through the experience it offers to all its pupils.

We create a happy, safe and secure environment for our learners to grow and achieve their full potential academically, physically, spiritually, emotionally and economically. We achieve this by:

- Providing an inclusive environment and curriculum, which enables learners to value and respect themselves and others.
- Providing opportunities to understand the meaning and significance of faith and take part in Christian worship; building on our positive working relationship with the church.
- Providing a broad, balanced, experiential curriculum which meets the needs of individual learners; offers challenges and celebrates high standards of achievement both academic and personal.
- Encouraging independent learning so that life skills such as: resilience, confidence, high self-esteem, self-motivation are developed, creating enthusiasm and enjoyment for discovery.
- Encouraging learners to make positive life choices which enable them to live a healthy and productive lifestyle.
- Encouraging all learners to play a full and active part in the life of our school and contribute to its development.
- Promoting positive working relationships within school and with parents/carers, the church and community, actively encouraging respect for each other and our environment.

We believe that children's full potential is best achieved when we all work together.

This publication scheme is a means of showing how we are pursuing these aims.

3. Categories of information published

The publication scheme guides you to information which we currently publish (or have recently published) or which we will publish in the future. This is split into categories of information known as 'classes'. These are contained in section 6 of this scheme.

The classes of information that we undertake to make available are organised into four broad topic areas:
